

A Pleasant Family Reunion.

Wednesday, the 19th, a family reunion was held at the old homestead of the late Dr. A. M. Brown in Sheldon. The doctor commenced practice in this town as early as 1838, and was the principal physician for nearly 50 years. His wife is living and resides with her second son at the old homestead. She is the mother of three sons and two daughters, all of whom are married and have families. The grandchildren number sixteen—Oliver K. Brown is a merchant and lives in Swanton, and has seven children; Dr. E. M. Brown is the resident physician here and resides at the homestead, and is the father of two children; Alfred K. Brown is a lawyer, and resides in Richford and is the present state's attorney for this county; he is the father of three children; Mrs. S. B. Greene is the wife of S. B. Greene, a farmer, and resides in the village, and she is the mother of one child; Mrs. C. H. Rowley is the wife of Rev. C. H. Rowley, a Congregational clergyman, and resides in Mass., and she is the mother of three children—not a death on record in the family, except the grandfather, Dr. A. M. Brown. From one that was present we learn that the reunion was pleasant and enjoyed by all, young and old.
