

BIG SUM ASKED FOR IN SUIT FOR DAMAGES

R. J. Luke Files Suit Against Jacob
Kaufman in District Court
—Wants $10,385

Yesterday, through his attorneys, Grimstad and Brown, R. J. Luke, filed suit for damages against Jacob Kaufman for the sum of $10,385. The complaint states that on January 9th, 1913, the defendant without cause and with intent to injure the good name of the plaintiff, wrongfully charged him with larceny and filed an information to that effect before Justice of Peace Smith of Billings. That on January 31, 1913 the plaintiff was arrested and that he was tried upon the fifth day of February and discharged, the cause being dismissed.

The complaint further states that the charge was entirely false and that the plaintiff has suffered injury to his good name as a result of the public ignominy and contempt and that he has undergone extreme mental suffering for which he demands damages to the extent of $10,000.

The complaint further states that the plaintiff was forced to employ legal services of Nichols and Wilson at the time of the hearing at a cost of $200, and that he traveled from California to Billings at his own expense as a result of the charges to allow the service of the papers of arrest at a cost to him of $185. The plaintiff demands damages to the extent of $10,385 and costs.
