

REPUBLICANS FORM BIG CLUB

R. H. TATE ELECTED PRES-IDENT AT ENTHUSIAS-TIC RALLY

Republicans of Yellowstone county organized a campaign club last evening at a meeting held in the Kennedy hall, attended by more than 100 Republicans.

R. H. Tate was elected president; Rockwood Brown, vice president, and John Edy, secretary.

Previous to the business meeting a rousing political rally was held and addresses were made by Mr. Tate, W. W. Gail, editor of The Gazette, and C. L. Harris. Mr. Tate made a rousing speech, talking on the service rendered by the members of the county ticket.

Mr. Harris made one of his rousing political speeches, filled his audience with enthusiasm, explained in detail the policies of the Republican party and illustrated his talk with timely stories.

Mr. Gail held the next attention of

RB Vice President of Republican Club.
