

AUTO SUPPLY HOLDS ITS ANNUAL ELECTION

Stockholders of the Northwestern Auto Supply company of this city, but which maintains branch houses at Great Falls and Pocatello, held their annual meeting here yesterday, declared an eight per cent dividend on capital stock, re-electing the old officers and closed the session with a dinner at the Northern.

The company had a splendid year, and despite war conditions, its officials are highly expectant for the current year. C. H. Guthard, was re-elected president; E. C. Guthard treasurer and general manager, and Rockwood Brown, vice pres. and secretary. These officials, together with W. W. Murphy of Basin, Wyo., and David Young of Buffalo, Wyo., constitute the advisory committee.
