

ATTORNEY O. K. GRIMSTAD ENLISTS NAVAL RESERVE

Attorney O. King Grimstad, who has been in Washington, D. C., for several weeks, has enlisted in the naval reserve for a period of four years, according to official announcement received by the local draft board yesterday. Attorney Grimstad went east as a delegate to the national convention of Elks at Atlantic City, N. J., representing the local lodge in his capacity of exalted ruler. Mr. Grimstad's name is included in the draft list here. As a member of the naval reserve, he will be subject to duty on call. He will return to Billings Saturday, July 20, according to word received by Mrs. Grimstad.
