

MURDER TRIAL TO START IN DISTRICT COURT FRIDAY

The trial of the state vs. Janie Davis, the only murder case on the present docket of the district court here, will begin at the courthouse Friday. Grimstad and Brown are attorneys for the defendant.

An information filed last Aug. 15, by James L. Davis, former county attorney, charges Janie Davis with murder in the first degree in connection with the death on June 14, of G. W. Hill, a laborer.

The case of the state vs. Berger, is set on the docket for next Saturday, Feb. 21. The complaint filed by the county attorney alleges that D. E. Berger and Alfred Rainhardt with theft of a branded steer.

Murder Trial Starts

Clipped By:

seabix1

Wed, Sep 2, 2020