

FISH HOUNDS START ON ANNUAL OUTING AT LAKE

The fish hounds are off on their annual pilgrimage.

They started at noon today and will be gone until Sept. 1 angling for the mountain beauties and enjoying the scenery around west Rosebud lake. They are taking their colored chef with them so they will not be burdened with menial tasks, but can devote their time to enjoying the luxury of having nothing to do.

The party roster contains the names of W. L. Lawson, J. E. Logan, H. L. Wilson, H. J. Coleman, Rockwood Brown, W. L. Halgren, R. C. Cardell, G. M. Fletcher, W. A. Calder, Dr. W. A. Allen, Dr. J. C. Kulp and Dr. H. E. Armstrong.

Johnny Jackson is the chef, and he is some chef. He was recently discharged from the navy after serving as chef of the officers' mess on the U. S. S. Alabama.

Most of the party started this afternoon for the cabin of Dr. Allen on the shores of Rosebud lake, and the others will follow at their convenience.
