

SOUTHLAND TO DRILL AT ONCE ON JUDD LAND

New Company Secures 40 Acres of Deeded Land on Soap Creek for Development.

Immediate development of another 40 acres on the Judd tract of deeded land in the Soap creek oil field on the Crow reservation, southeast of Billings, was announced yesterday by organizers of the Southland Oil company, who have just purchased for cash consideration lease on the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 2, township 7 south, range 40 east. This acreage is located about one mile southeast of the Western States Oil & Land company's discovery well in 24-4-25 and adjoins the 40 acres held by the Soap Creek Apex Oil syndicate on the east.

Representatives of the Southland Oil company, with the assistance of attorneys and their associates, secured the lease about 10 o'clock last night. The lease was secured through the efforts of J. H. Brown, 1229 street, Billings, and J. H. Brown, 1229 street, Billings, who are the organizers of the company. The lease was secured through the efforts of J. H. Brown, 1229 street, Billings, and J. H. Brown, 1229 street, Billings, who are the organizers of the company.

The lease was secured through the efforts of J. H. Brown, 1229 street, Billings, and J. H. Brown, 1229 street, Billings, who are the organizers of the company.

The lease was secured through the efforts of J. H. Brown, 1229 street, Billings, and J. H. Brown, 1229 street, Billings, who are the organizers of the company.

Soap Creek Oil Field

Clipped By:

seabix1
Mon, Mar 23, 2020