

LAWRENCE JUDD LEAVES FOR SWITZERLAND AFTER LEASING HIS OIL LAND

Lawrence Judd, who recently sold the last of the leases on his Soap Creek oil land, will leave today for a visit at his old home in Switzerland. Mr. Judd disposed of leases on 320 acres of deeded land on axis of the Soap Creep anticline for a sum in excess of eight times what the land cost him and besides this bonus, he retains a royalty of 12½ per cent of all oil produced on his land. Holders of leases on the Judd tracts include the Southland Oil company, the Soap Creek Apex Oil company, a group consisting of R. M. Hart, B. R. Albin, Rockwood Brown and O. K. Grimstad, the Crow Reservation Syndicate, and a Minneapolis syndicate which recently acquired lease on 160 acres of this land from Mr. Judd.
