THOUGH DEFEATED, FRENCH IDOL RECEIVES TREMENDOUS OVALION WHEN HE LEAVES RING; DECLINES BLOW ON BACK OF NECK CONTRIBUTED TO PUGILISTIC DOWNFALL; CHAMPION EMERGES FROM ANGER HAPPY AND WITHOUT A SINGLE MARK TO INDICATE PAIN OR INJURY

ROUSSELL, James City, N. A. July 3.—Jack Dempsey to win the heavyweight pugilistic championship of the world. A masterly right swing from the hip of the American fighter put the Frenchman down in the fourth round of the scheduled fight at the Fox Theater, Sunday night. The champion was again both true to his word and to his opponent. The preliminary was again both true to his word and to his opponent.

SECOND KNOCKDOWN FINAL

Although he had staggered to his feet after the third round, he was unable to get up for the second time after the fourth round. He was again both true to his word and to his opponent.
