

Committee of One Hundred Personnel Is Made Public

The membership of the Committee of One Hundred of the Billings Commercial club numbered 101 when the names were announced on Saturday afternoon by H. C. Crippen, of those who have so far contributed $100 each as a nucleus for the $18,000 budget the club has adopted for 1924. Upon this list of loyal citizens who thus demonstrate their faith and confidence in the community and their conviction that the coming year is to be one of unusual advancement and prosperity, the names of two women stand forth, an indication that the business women do not intend to remain in the background when it comes to getting behind a movement to promote the welfare of the Midland empire. The names are those of Mrs. Carrie Cruse and Mrs. Mattie Chapple.

The membership roll of the Committee of One Hundred has not yet been closed, nor will it be until next Saturday evening at 6:45, the time designated for the annual meeting of the Commercial club, a gathering in which every business and professional man in Billings is expected to take part. The meeting will be in the nature of a ratification of the accomplishment of the organization of the Committee of One Hundred and will be held in the Commercial club cafe, where a dinner will be served and a business session held.
