

Many Attend Rites For O. K. Grimstead; Matthews Officiates

The body of Orville King Grimstad, prominent Billings attorney, who died Wednesday, was placed in the community mausoleum at Mountview cemetery at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, following impressive services held at the home, 122 Clark avenue. The Rev. Douglas Matthews, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, officiated.

A special car was required to transport the abundance of flowers to the place of burial. Bouquets were received from many friends of the late attorney. The funeral was well attended, a number coming from other cities to hear the final rites.

The active pallbearers were A. R. McDermott, H. J. Coleman, C. W. Bowen, R. C. Battey, John E. Dobbin and Ray Hart, all personal friends of Mr. Grimstad. Members of the American Legion, of which he was a member, acted as honorary pallbearers. They were A. C. Spangler, L. T. Christian, Peter Goan, Morgan Bidelake, A. V. McIver and B. H. Chaffin. ***

Rites Held For O.K. Grimstad

Clipped By:

seabix1

Sat, Sep 5, 2020