

Tourists From Nearly Every State Stopped Here During Season

From nearly every state in the Union, from Canada and even from across the sea came travelers this year to see and enjoy scenery and climate offered by Montana—and to spend a night en route at Laurel.

The record, the most extensive since '29, was revealed here this week when Charles Perry, proprietor of the Laurel Leaf tourist park at the east end of the Main street paving, gave statistics concerning people served at that stopping place.
