

REHEARING ASKED BY OUSTED TRIO

Ex-Road Board Seeks New Trial of Pro- ceedings in Case.

Helena, March 1.—(AP)—Three members of the Montana highway commission, removed from office by former Gov. Elmer Holt for collection of illegal fees, petitioned the state supreme court Monday for a new trial of the proceedings under which the court upheld their removal.

The former commissioners are Dr. H. J. McGregor, Great Falls; Rockwood Brown, Billings, and L. J. Croonenberghs, Missoula.

Their removal was upheld in a three-to-two decision of the supreme court on a quo warranto proceedings brought by the Montana attorney
