

Riding in an ancient automobile, four local youths set their course for A Century of Progress over the weekend. The antiquated vehicle is composed of a varied collection of automobile parts, with neither top nor radiator hood. A large disk wheel on the right rear makes the omnibus tilt at a precarious angle. The group consists of Jack Hay, Bill Roscoe, Keith Brown and John Duncan, all seniors in the local high school. They will return only when funds get low, they said.

* * *

Local Youth Drive Old Jalopy Toward Chicago Exposition

Clipped By:

seabix1

Fri, Apr 17, 2020