

Barbara Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rockwood Brown of 1119 North Thirty-first street, has been chosen engineer's queen at Montana State college.

Sole judge in the popularity contest was Gary Cooper, former Montana cowboy who once washed dishes in Billings for room and board before he skyrocketed into the lucrative niche of filmdom.

The selection of the Billings girl was announced at the engineering students' annual ball held on the Bozeman campus Friday night, according to an Associated Press dispatch.
