

Luncheon, Show Is Staged by Garden Club

—Cathy's Photo

A luncheon sponsored Tuesday by members of the Billings Garden club honored Mrs. R. O. Steele, state president, and Mrs. E. L. Sommers of Laurel, state treasurer. The affair preceded the club's annual spring flower show in the Eastern Montana College of Education gymnasium.

Seated at the luncheon table in rock's restaurant are, left to right, Mrs. H. J. Cook of Laurel, Mrs. Robert Hamilton, president of Billings Garden club; Mrs. Steele, Mrs. Mrs. Sommers, Mrs. Steele, Mrs. P. T. Baker, past state president; Mrs. Kenneth Moore of Sheridan, Wyo.; Mrs. F. H. Benjamin, Mrs. C. M. Harden and Mrs. Rockywood Brown, who had charge of the luncheon.

At lower left is Mrs. J. E. Barnett, whose artistic arrangement of delphinium, roses and daisies in glass on a mirror, suitable for a luncheon table, won first place in the popular choice vote.

Placing second and third were Mrs. U. Lissa and Mrs. Kenneth F. Roehen. Mrs. Lissa's entry, place setting for a table in modern manner, displayed a floral arrangement of pink pinocchio roses and purple viola, featured with purple tumbblers and pink and purple candles. Mrs. Roehen's entry was a wedding buffet in white, including a cake encircled with orange blossoms.

Out-of-town guests at the show included Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Edwards of Sheridan, Wyo., Elmer Sor of Great Falls, Mrs. Clarence Nelson of Tyler, Miss. Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Frazer of Wichita, Kan. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sangston of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Helen Rutstad of Columbus and Joe M. Johnson of Portland, Ore., who for three years was president of the Portland Garden club and now is national president of the Men's Garden club.

Two Hostesses Give Shower for Local Bride-Elect

Mrs. Norene Hoyt and Mrs. Betty Schiley were hostesses at a shower complimenting Miss Margaret Lou Ennis, bride-elect, at the Y.W.C.A. building Tuesday evening.

The tables were decorated with white peonies. Miss Ennis is to be married July 1 to Francis C. Dars, son of Mrs. Jennie Jimason, 124 North Thirty-fourth street.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ennis, 215 1/2 South Twenty-eighth street.

Marriage of Local Couple in Columbus Is Announced Here

(Mrs. Brown Photo) Garden Club Gives Luncheon

Clipped By:

seabix1

Fri, Apr 10, 2020