

Governor John W. Bonner Friday appointed three men to the Montana resources development board created by the Thirty-first legislature. Named, besides Rockwood Brown, Billings attorney, shown in the photo, were T. J. Sullivan of Butte and Jack C. Toole of Shelby. They will serve through 1950 and are charged with a continuing study of the state's resources with the aim of attracting new industry to Montana.

(Photo) Rockwood Brown Appointed To Montana Resourcces Board

Clipped By:

seabix1 Fri, Apr 10, 2020

Newspapers