

"Bentonite, closely allied with the oil industry, has gained a foothold in Central Wyoming since the war. The Casper plant, operating on sources from Poison Spider and Kaycee, and the new Greybull plant, has now begun the processing of bentonite near there.

New Greybull Plant Operating

Clipped By:

seabix1

Wed, Apr 29, 2020