

10 The Billings Gazette

Lindbergh's Trophies of Fame

From All Over the World They Have Come, Official Tributes and Personal Donations, as Gifts to America's Greatest Hero. This Unique Collection of Everything From Golden Airplanes to Home-Knit Socks Is on Exhibition in St. Louis

By Marquis W. Childs

FIVE trophies have been brought to this city in the past few days. They are the trophies of fame which the world has bestowed upon the man who has become the greatest hero of the American people. They are the trophies of fame which the world has bestowed upon the man who has become the greatest hero of the American people.

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh
From a Drawing by Albert P. D'Amico

Four of the Many Medals in Lindbergh's Collection

These Models of "The Spirit of St. Louis"—the Large One in Silver, the Tiny One in Gold, the Third Standard With Rhinoceros

THE trophies have been brought to this city in the past few days. They are the trophies of fame which the world has bestowed upon the man who has become the greatest hero of the American people. They are the trophies of fame which the world has bestowed upon the man who has become the greatest hero of the American people.

Lindbergh Trophies

Clipped By:

seabix1
Thu, Jun 11, 2020