

RICHFORDMr. and Mrs. I. B. Hawley Celebrate Their Golden Wedding

Wednesday evening, September 25, was the occasion of a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Hawley to their friends and neighbors who called during the evening from 7:30 until 10:30 o'clock to congratulate them on the 50th anniversary of their marriage. The decorations and other details of the reception were in charge of members of the Order of Eastern Star. About one hundred and twenty-five friends called to extend their congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Hawley were the recipient of many gold pieces from friends and from the Masonic Order and Eastern Star, besides many telegrams and cards from absent friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hawley have three children, Mrs. H. A. Whitney, of Northfield, Mrs. Rockwood Brown, of Billings, Mont., and Raymond Hawley, of Chicago, besides seven grandchildren. Mrs. Whitney and daughter, Mary, of Northfield, Mrs. Rockwood Brown and little son, Rockwood Brown, of Billings, Mont., were present for the occasion. The only people now living in town who were at the wedding ceremony, September twenty-five, 1879 are, Mrs. Ruth Royce, Horatio Thomas, Omer Corliss, Gilmore Corliss and Miss Tilda Corliss all of whom were present at the reception.

Golden Anniversary of Hawleys Attended By Elizabeth Brown

Clipped By:

seabix1

Fri, Jan 29, 2021