

SENATOR WALSH FACES OPPOSITION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. — (AP) — Montana Republican leaders conferring here this week are canvassing the senatorial situation in their state, and the name of Albert J. Galen, associate justice of the supreme court, has been mentioned prominently as a candidate against Senator Walsh, a Democrat, in the election this year.

J. A. Schnitzler, Republican national committeeman, and Rockwood Brown, chairman of the state central committee, have discussed the situation with Chairman Moses, of the Republican senatorial campaign committee.

Representative Leavitt also has been mentioned as a Republican opponent against Walsh during the discussions but there is some doubt that Leavitt will run. If Leavitt does not, party leaders are looking favorably upon Galen.
