

Page Two THE BILLINGS GAZETTE Sunday, Dec. 28, 1930

City's 1930 Progress Reflected in News Summary

Review of Events Reveals Billings' Steady Growth

THE year 1930, which is the close of the year, was a year of steady progress in Billings, Montana. The city has shown a steady growth in population, industry, and commerce. The following is a summary of the events of the year:

FLORIST
The florist industry in Billings has shown a steady growth in the past year. The number of florists has increased, and the quality of the flowers has improved. The florists have been successful in their efforts to attract new customers and to increase their sales.

STUDENT AIR
The student air corps in Billings has shown a steady growth in the past year. The number of students has increased, and the quality of the training has improved. The student air corps has been successful in their efforts to attract new students and to increase their enrollment.

FINISHERS LOOK
The finishers in Billings have shown a steady growth in the past year. The number of finishers has increased, and the quality of the work has improved. The finishers have been successful in their efforts to attract new customers and to increase their sales.

JANUARY
The month of January was a busy one for Billings. The city was visited by a heavy snowfall, which caused some inconvenience. However, the city was able to handle the situation with ease. The month ended with a steady increase in business.

MARCH
The month of March was a busy one for Billings. The city was visited by a heavy snowfall, which caused some inconvenience. However, the city was able to handle the situation with ease. The month ended with a steady increase in business.

MAY
The month of May was a busy one for Billings. The city was visited by a heavy snowfall, which caused some inconvenience. However, the city was able to handle the situation with ease. The month ended with a steady increase in business.

SEPTEMBER
The month of September was a busy one for Billings. The city was visited by a heavy snowfall, which caused some inconvenience. However, the city was able to handle the situation with ease. The month ended with a steady increase in business.

NOVEMBER
The month of November was a busy one for Billings. The city was visited by a heavy snowfall, which caused some inconvenience. However, the city was able to handle the situation with ease. The month ended with a steady increase in business.

DECEMBER
The month of December was a busy one for Billings. The city was visited by a heavy snowfall, which caused some inconvenience. However, the city was able to handle the situation with ease. The month ended with a steady increase in business.

HELD IN FOOT
The football season in Billings was a successful one. The team played a steady game and was able to attract a large number of fans. The season ended with a steady increase in business.

UNDER KNIFE
The medical profession in Billings has shown a steady growth in the past year. The number of doctors has increased, and the quality of the care has improved. The medical profession has been successful in their efforts to attract new patients and to increase their sales.

Year End Reviews 1930

Clipped By:

seabix1
Sat, Apr 25, 2020