

Production in Soap Creek, Cat Creek, Osage, Devils Basin

ARE YOU WATCHING?

Hailstone Basin, Huntley, Joliet and a dozen other potential fields within a radius of seventy-five miles of Billings? Every well spudded in is an added reason for location of the

Montana Refining Co. at Billings

The site for this new industry was purchased last week from Yegen Bros., Bankers, adjoining the Northern Pacific right-of-way and construction work will be started in the immediate future. WHY SHOULD MONTANA OIL BE REFINED IN WYOMING? Our slogan is—

MONTANA FIRST

Do you believe in it? And, if so, have you joined the crowd that is putting it over? The financing of the company is progressing successfully, and a refinery is essential to the advancement of Billings and the entire oil industry.

Let's snap into it and put it over quick! Act on your impulse by making a profitable investment for yourself and help Billings become the center of the growing oil industry of Montana.
