

HELENA WILL CLOSE SHOPS DURING RITES

Body of Montana Solon to Reach State Capital on Thursday Morning

Solemn Requiem Mass to Be Celebrated in Cathedral at 11 o'Clock

HELENA, March 7.—(AP)—Preparations for the funeral here Thursday morning of the late Senator Thomas J. Walsh neared completion tonight as the second day of the long journey westward with the body was begun.

Names of the active and honorary pallbearers were announced by Capt. Emmet C. Gudger, son-in-law of the senator, in a communication received late tonight from St. Paul, Minn. The active pallbearers are J. Burke Clements, Raymond T. Nagle, Raymond Winsa, W. O. Whipple, Lester Leslie, Dr. John Treacy, Wellington Rankin and Fred Sheriff, all of Helena.

The body will arrive here shortly after 7 a. m. Thursday and will lie in state at the capital from 9 o'clock until 10:30. It will then be removed to the St. Helena cathedral, where at 11 o'clock solemn requiem mass will be celebrated by the Most Rev. Edwin V. O'Hara, bishop of Great Falls, with the assistance of other Catholic dignitaries of the state.

Interment will be made in Resurrection cemetery immediately after the services at the cathedral.

All offices and business houses in Helena will close for the ceremonies. A memorial service will be held at Intermountain Union college tomorrow morning at the regular chapel hour.

Meanwhile, hundreds of Montanans are planning trips to the capital city to pay homage at the bier of the man they four times elected to the senate.

The honorary pallbearers are: Boris Aronow, J. W. Anderson, Roy E. Ayers, James Arnold, Max Asch, Will Aiken, Harry Andrus Jr., Walter Aikin, Bert Albin, A. H. Angerman, Ralph J. Anderson, Parker T. Anderson, Andrew D. Anderson.

P. J. Bonner, I. M. Brandjord, P. J. Burke, Albert Besancon, W. H. Beacom, Lou Broecker, M. A. Brainson, Dr. W. J. Butler, C. J. Batsch, James J. Brett, James H. Baldwin, Ben B. Briscoe, W. H. Bartley, E. O'H. C. Brady, R. C. Baiter, Rockwood Brown, A. J. Bowman, A. H. Bowman, C. W. Burns.
