

Junior Rifle Club Elects Hay Leader; Conducts Practice

Members of the recently formed junior rifle squad, sponsored by the Yellowstone Rifle club, held their organization meeting Tuesday night in the club's indoor gallery in the 2900 block on First avenue north.

Jack Hay was chosen president and Bill Roscoe elected range officer. The members, all high school students, are Hay, Roscoe, Robert Hanley, Jr., Luther Terrett, Speed Havelick, Harold Blick, Keith Brown, Hub Appleby and John Duncan. The coach is A. M. Slater, secretary of the senior unit.

The new outfit will meet each Tuesday night on the range to hold practice sessions in view of booking matches with other Montana junior rifle clubs as soon as they "get their legs." Roscoe will work in cooperation with John Dobbins, senior range officer.

Following the election Tuesday night, Art Hoefert, senior club member, talked to the boys regarding firing and then assisted Slater in directing a practice session.
