

LOCAL PERSONS WILL SEE GAME

35 to Board Special Train Here for Seattle Tilt.

Montana football fans, who follow the University of Minnesota's football fortunes with rabid interest because Bernie Bierman began his meteoric coaching career at Butte and later coached at Montana State university, will be well represented when the kickoff whistle blows in the University of Washington stadium Saturday.

Of the some 100 Treasure state fans who will trail the Gophers to Seattle for the classic struggle, 35 will board a special train at Billings Friday morning that will get them into the Washington city a few hours before game time.

One car from Billings, two from Butte and one from Helena will be hooked onto the second section of the North Coast Limited that is the football special running through with 225 fans from the Twin Cities.

The Montana delegation will leave Seattle Sunday night and arrive in Billings Tuesday morning.

Midland Empire fans who have reservations for the trip include Mr. and Mrs. Rockwood Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rahn, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Clark, Wyn Hilgedick, W. J. Kelly, Joe Cutrone, W. J. Hawkins, Louis O'Hara, Dr. R. W. Kelly, Harry Snyder, W. C. Kell, Dr. and Mrs. Philip Griffin, Louis Dousman, Mr. and Mrs. Harold O'Donnell, Charles Franzen and daughter, and Charles B. Hurd, all of Billings, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Dennison of Sheridan, Wyo., Dr. Harrison of Harlowton and Pete Huntington of Red Lodge.

RB and Wife Traveling to Football Game in Seattle

Clipped By:

seabix1

Thu, Apr 2, 2020