

WARDEN, BROWN ARE PUT ON WATER BOARD

Continued from Page 11

which $1,555,276 was granted by the federal government. The six projects approved and awaiting development will cost approximately $14,400,000.

Mr. Warden, appointed by Gov. Lee

FIGHTS FOR WATER

O. H. WARDEN
Of Great Falls, a citizen of the Helena, during the execution of the state water conservation program, and has been instrumental in other projects to get the water for irrigation, now authorized term of Mr. Lee, will serve on the board until his second election in January, 1938. Mr. Lee also selected E. B. Farnell as chairman, director of the project board appointed by the governor and Frank Thomas.

Mr. Brown's term, the longest portion of Mr. Warden's job, follows, which is of the second class in Montana. The first class member was appointed by water conservation board, and a member of the first class is designated B. State and water right will be, in 1938, as follows:

NEW MEMBER

ROCKWOOD BROWN
Of Billings, new member of the state water conservation board, who has gained wide experience in water conservation before the state program runs.

(Photo) RB Named to Water Conservation 2

Clipped By:

seabix1

Fri, Jan 29, 2021