

The Billings Mustangs lost a heart-breaking home opener 3 to 2 before 3,280 fans to the Salt Lake City Bees Tuesday night in the newly remodeled Athletic park. Local fans braved near freezing weather to cheer the Mustangs at their initial home appearance of the 1948 Pioneer league season. Gene Broker's long double in the ninth to score Kenney Jensen all the way from first did the trick for the Bees.

Mustangs Lose Home Opener

Clipped By:

seabix1

Wed, Nov 18, 2020