

Richard L. Wray and Rockwood Brown, Jr., students at Montana State university of Missoula, are taking air R.O.T.C. cadet training at Hamilton air force base in California, it was announced Saturday. Scheduled for six weeks, the training will feature administrative and supply work. Upon completion of the courses the cadets will return to the university for another year of classroom instruction after which

Cadet Training For MSU College Students

Clipped By:

seabix1

Fri, Apr 10, 2020