session to work out playing schedules for the season and elect officers.

J. P. Halliwell, league president, said at least 15 men are expected to attend from the eight clubs, with possibly more deciding to attend. Sports writers and other press representatives will also be in attendance.

Three tentative playing schedules for the 1950 season have been sent out to all club officials to study and it is expected that a final adoption of a playing schedule will be made at the Sunday session.

Other business on the agenda will include the type of playoff to be held, whether the split season or the Shaughnessy playoff, and plans for the annual mid-season all-star game.

Directors and club officials who plan to be at the meeting include Hayden Walker, Boise; Maury Doerr and Jack Radtke, Twin Falls; Archie Cochran and Rockwood Brown, Billings; Walter Jensen and Nick Maraca, Great Falls; E. F. McDermott and Bill Wickert, Idaho Falls; John Sarlo, Ogden; Eddie Mulligan, Claude Engberg and Dick Hogan, Salt Lake City, and Marvin Milkes and Harold Hinckley, Pocatello. Mr. Halliwell will preside.
