

Beach Girl Says Vows in Helena

Miss Marilyn A. Alguire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Alguire, Beach and Billings, Mont., was united in marriage with Rockwood Brown, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rockwood Brown, Billings, at St. Peters Pro-Cathedral in Helena, Mont. The Very Rev. C. A. Wilson officiated.

A suit of bachelor button blue and navy accessories were worn by the bride. Her colonial corsage was composed of white freesias and shattered pink carnations in white tulle.

Mr. and Mrs. Alguire were the couple's attendants. Mrs. Alguire wore a beige suit with brown accessories and a corsage of talisman roses in gold tulle.

A wedding dinner for members of the immediate families was served at the Florence hotel, Missoula.

The newlyweds are students at Montana State university, Missoula. Mr. Brown is a senior in law and member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

The bride, a junior, belongs to Delta Gamma sorority. She was graduated from Beach high school, valedictorian of her class in 1948. She spent her freshman year at Concordia college, Moorhead, Minn., and later studied at Eastern Montana college.
