

Shop Fire Damages Auto at Greybull

GREYBULL, Wyo. — A spark from a welding machine ignited a car in the workshop of the Wyo-Ben plant north of Greybull Thursday evening, causing considerable damage, it was reported by Greybull Fire Chief Emery Hewitt.

The car which was the property of Jerry Snyder, was extensively damaged. The workshop's wiring and windows as well as a compressor also were damaged.

Wyo-Ben Fire Damages Automobile

Clipped By:

seabix1

Wed, Apr 29, 2020