

The Billings Gazette Sunday, March 27, 1960 — 9
Morning Edition

—Carp's Photo

RECEPTION—A reception in Cardwell Hall followed a "pop" concert presented by Billings Symphony Society's orchestra and chorus Saturday in Billings High School auditorium. Pictured from left at the tulip-centered table are Mrs. Franklin S. Longan, Mrs. Rockwood Brown Sr., George Perkins, conductor; Mayor Carl Clavadetscher, who during concert intermission congratulated the society upon its 10th anniversary as "an important cultural organization; Mrs. Rockwood Brown Jr., Mike Fraser, youngest member of the orchestra, who plays a tuba, and Mrs. S. L. Braid. The reception was given by the society's women's committee and others in charge of arrangements were Mrs. Harry H. Miller, Mrs. Charles Sande, Mrs. Peter Decker and Mrs. Stuart Conner. Also pouring were Mrs. William Lowe, Mrs. C. H. Betzer, Mrs. Brown Sr. and Mrs. Edwin Wis-meyer, women's committee chairman.

(Photo) Reception Follows Pop Concert

Clipped By:

seabix1

Wed, Apr 15, 2020