

Elizabeth H. Brown

Elizabeth H. Brown loved her family and friends and gave abundantly of herself and service to others. After her husband's death in 1956, she made her life rich with interests in her church, gardening, music and her growing family.

She was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, St. Margaret Guild, PEO, and was a life member of Hilands Golf Club.

Mrs. Brown, 102, of 1119 N. 31st St., died Saturday in her home of natural causes.

She was born Oct. 22, 1886, in Richford, Vt., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Israel B. Hawley. On Oct. 8, 1913, she married Rockwood Brown Sr. in Richford. They moved to Billings where he established his law practice.

Survivors include three sons, A. Keith Brown, Neil H. Brown and Rockwood Brown, all of Billings; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara B. Bixby of Freeland, Wash.; 13 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in St. Luke's Episcopal Church. Burial will be in Mountview Cemetery with Michelotti-Sawyers Mortuary in charge.
