

Billings Gazette
Monday, January 1, 1990 Billings, Montana 59102 1990 Year: $6.00

---

DON'T MISS

The Redskins' Clark Phares and eighth on the Plains. FOOTBALL
On Oct. 15, 1989, Clark Phares and eighth on the Plains. SPORTS '89 IN TELEVISION '89

1990
A year of change in the City-State '74

---

GLISTENING IN THE SUNSHINE

A long drive home with the sun reflecting off the road. Caller uses credit cards in con game
By David McLaughlin
A Billings credit card caller used a telephone to convince a woman to buy a car. The caller, who is not named, called the woman and told her that she had won a car. The woman, who is not named, believed the caller and bought a car. The caller then disappeared. The woman is now trying to get her money back. Merchants told to ask for the card
Billings merchants are being urged to ask for a credit card when they make a sale. The merchants are being urged to ask for a credit card because of the increase in credit card fraud. The merchants are being urged to ask for a credit card because of the increase in credit card fraud. INSIDE
City-State '74
Sports '89
1990
A year of change in the City-State '74

---

San Francisco rocked by late-morning blast
A 2.5 magnitude earthquake struck San Francisco on Sunday morning, causing minor damage and injuries. The earthquake occurred at 10:30 a.m. and was felt throughout the city. Filipino gunmen kidnap missionary
A Filipino missionary was kidnapped by gunmen in the Philippines. The missionary was taken to a remote area and held captive. Town lures Soviets with rubles
A town in the Soviet Union is luring Americans with rubles. The town is offering rubles to Americans who want to visit. School helps adults find dream jobs
A school is helping adults find their dream jobs. The school is offering job training and counseling to adults. Firefighter cleans up piles
A firefighter is cleaning up piles of debris. The firefighter is working on a site where a fire occurred. Man in well-known school student Larry Patton, 55, of Fort Thomas, Mo., works with New York's state leaders on jobs. He says he couldn't get by on his own.

Happy New Year 1990

Clipped By:

seabix1
Thu, Jul 23, 2020