

William E. Steele
March 4, 1920-June 2, 1998

Maxine usually had a carload of kids traveling to out-of-town games. Bill loved music, especially big bands. He played the saxophone and guitar for dances around the area. In fact, he put himself through business college playing for the dances.

MR. STEELE

After he moved to Billings, Rockwood and Keith Brown and Bill formed Buffalo Creek Livestock where they had a feedlot in Acton and ran cattle in Custer. Later Jim Ussin and Bill formed U Bar S Real Estate where he was a partner until his retirement.

Buffalo Creek Livestock Beginnings

Clipped By:

seabix1

Tue, Apr 21, 2020