

Awarded scholarships

Shauna Hohn, daughter of Thomas and Ginger Hohn of Columbus, and Scott Sparks, son of Duane and Marilyn Sparks of Lewistown, are the recipients of a $1,500 Keith Brown Endowed Scholarship for the 1998-99 academic year at Rocky Mountain College.

The Keith Brown Business Ethics Endowment is awarded to students who have achieved and maintained a 3.2 GPA or above majoring in business administration. This endowment was created and named for Keith Brown, who exemplified in his life and career, ethical conduct always reflecting on choices and realizing that the best decision many times required calling upon one's own deep seated belief in ethical and moral behavior. Recipients for this scholarship are reviewed by a committee and the Brown Family.
