

HARRY FUNK
50 years of service

WYO-BEN, INC. held an anniversary dinner on October 26, 2007 acknowledging Harry Funk's 50 years of service with Wyo-Ben where he received accolades and good-natured roasting from company employees, customers and associates, a keepsake clock presented by David Brown, President and CEO, and numerous other gifts. Over 50 people were in attendance at the Billings Petroleum Club to honor Harry and express their appreciation of his hard work and dedication.

People gathered from Calgary and Edmonton, Alberta; Houston and Midland, Texas; Tulsa, Oklahoma; and Wyoming to join in honoring Harry. The BNSF Railway was represented by Teresa Perkins from Fort Worth, Texas and several representatives from Diversity Technologies joined in the celebration. Harry's family was also present, wife Evelyn, son Lonnie and his wife Leslie from Springfield, Missouri, daughter Geri, daughter Terri and her husband Bob McIver and son Brandon. After 50 years with Wyo-Ben, Harry has no plans to retire and is still going strong.
