

Sande Resigns County Office

Will Enter Private Law Practice Here

Charles B. Sande, Yellowstone county attorney since January 1949, announced his resignation Tuesday to become a member of the law firm of Rockwood Brown and Horace S. Davis in the Montana National bank building.

Sande said his resignation will become effective shortly after the July 15 primary election in which two of his staff, Chief Deputy Jerome Anderson and Deputy Arnold A. Berger, are candidates for the Republican nomination for county attorney.

The county attorney said he will enter into the private practice of law as a partner in the Billings firm, which will operate under the name of Brown, Davis & Sande. Associates with partners in the firm are Ben N. Forbes and Rockwood Brown, Jr.
