

Dorothy Irene Brown

Dorothy I. Brown, 73, of Billings, died July 11, 1996, at her residence.

Dorothy was born on April 30, 1923, the daughter of John and Catherine Quinlan, in Providence, R.I., where she grew up and received her education.

Dorothy was united in marriage to Neal Brown in Providence, April 8, 1944. She attended business school, and, during World War II, she was employed at Pierce Packing and Gorham Silver Manufacturing as a secretary in Providence. They moved to Billings in 1958.

Dorothy was an avid reader, she kept a spotless house and she had a great sense of humor. She was a member of St. Thomas the Apostle Church.

Dorothy is survived by her husband of 52 years, Neal Brown of Billings; her daughter and her son-in-law, Dottie and Doug Long, and her grandchildren, Stephanie, Gillian, Alex and Elizabeth Long, all of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Funeral Mass will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, July 16, at St. Thomas the Apostle Church. Interment will be at Holy Cross Cemetery. Memorials may be made to St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 2210 Colton Blvd., Billings, Mont. 59102.
